

Path of Seasons

As we travel through life and its endless seasonal view

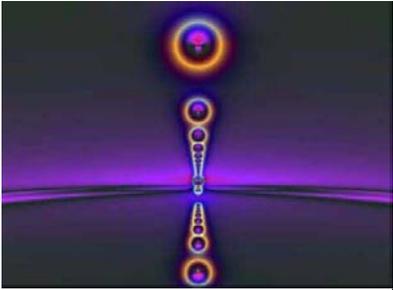

May we ever be seen as its creator, as with our thoughts and all that is doth come; we imbue!

Ending of a year, beginning of a new, feel all that is of we;

And let loves forever fill our spirit, always free!

From our inner spirit, the true we,

Sprouts forth our works along our endless path:

Straight, curved, or jagged,

It is us for which the bell tolls and we ourselves know!

Whether your Yule is in the cold or in the warmth:

Let it always be in a calm and peaceful setting with all that you consider family and friends, spirits and their friends;

Keeping your table space available for all:

Small families or large, make all welcome

For they are a part of you within the One!

Whether your home is a simple cottage

Or a grand Temple

Welcome all with an unconditional loving greeting

Know that when you impart true knowledge
That it is not just the books you read

Or the ones you wrote

But the inner knowing from the One within
The I AM of All as One

The Natural world has many paths,
Up, down, sideways, always changing,
Always in motion, full of energy in every form;

We are wizards every one;

Memory does not serve us well, but our spirit guides are now calling us every one, to keep ourselves and planet alive, long enough to attain in this one life: "Embodied Ascension"!

Yes, we know in the fabric of our cells, our very history, and as it rises to the surface of our awareness we start to see:

From whence we came long ago, and along our path:

Treasures accumulate, orders arise and fall:

Yet we endure and arise again with more understanding, and a little more awareness of our path and journey's end point!

Waters of Life, Life of Spirit, From Within!

Rest along the path, spend time within

For we are whom we have been waiting for!

Now we must not pass again in death, for rebirth of the true man of eternity

is at hand:

Enjoy your Yule

New Year

Easter and Equinox, Solstice and Harmony!

Write "we" our own future!

Hypnotic Illusions

Awakened I, and we to potential illusions,
Trapped in an illusion of another's making -
And dream I of the power of creative fusion;
Suffer they whom allow dualism upon waking --

Creation from I to design my own illusions
Thus reject by separation the old Earth;
Old energies will now be only conclusions
of personal choice;
New Energy now, new birth!

Divide I not from my higher self, we are infinity,
All is one allowing flows of energies non-polar;
Once created, I release them as its own entity
As it seeks to unify consciousness both deep and far;

Old Energies must now recede allowing a new paradigm,
As we meld and ascend in oneness within our lifetime!
